Win High Honors In Q & S Contest

Gloria Wiles, Wanda Faulkner Place in Copyreading and Editorial Writing

Gloria Wiles and Wanda Faulkner, seniors, won high honors in the first group contest sponsored by Quill and Scroll, international honorary society for high school journalists, according to an announcement carried in the December-January issue of the society periodical.

Gloria placed first in the south central states division in copyreading. Wanda received honorable mention in the same division in editorial writing. Students of high schools in nearly every state in the Union submitted entries in copyreading, editorial writing and current events. The high school did not enter the last.

The two who represented Pittsburg were selected after a contest in the Journalism class.

DR. GORDON SPEAKS IN ASSEMBLY THIS MORNING

Dr. Harry A. Gordon, pastor of the First Methodist Church, spoke to the student body in assembly this morning. His subject was "Resolutions." Devotions were read by Finley Porcia senior. A soprano solo was sung by Virginia Fortino. Darrell Cochran presided over the meeting. Mr. Marion Nation is in charge of the chapel programs for the month of January.

Old Year Leaves Book of Success As History Tome

1936-A Year of Achievement
For Students and Faculty
Of Pitt Hi

New Honor Each Month
Resume Shows Active Progress in All
Fields Throughout 9-Month
Stretch

1936—a year of achievement! Twelve months have slipped by on the wings of time, leaving a pleasant history, a history of which every boy, girl, and faculty member of P. H. S. can justly be proud. It has had its trials but has overcome them and succeeded. However, it is merely a stepping stone in the progress of the school.

Each month brought new honors and accomplishments. Now the old year, leaving the following calendar behind, "takes a bow," and bids everyone "adieu."

January

10—Ella Bowman, Roscoe James, Ivan Adams and Betty Dorsey are selected for the debate team; 17—speech classes present four plays; 23—Harry C. Date For Local Bundle Day Set

Committees Appointed to Collect
Clothing for Needy School
Children Here

A definite date for a Bundle Day in Pittsburg has been set for Saturday, Jan. 16, the object being to collect clothing for needy school children of the city. Leaflets announcing the event will be sent out the preceding Saturday, Jan. 9.

Plans for the event were outlined at a meeting of the sponsors and service committee chairmen of the Hi-Y and Girl Reserve groups Tuesday morning.

Three committees, which are to go into action immediately, were appointed at the meeting. The first committee which is to take care of the writing and printing of the leaflet is composed of Mr. Blaine Glendening, Maxine Petty, and Alvadore Suffron. The second committee whose work is to divide the town into districts, and secure workers to help put the plan over is made up of Mr. C. H. Lundquest, Miss Calla Leeka, Donald McCollister and Alene Michie. The third committee which is to arrange for collecting the bundles is composed of Mr. Clyde Hartford and Miss Esther Gable.

Mr. Ellsworth Briggs made the statement that without the cooperation of each individual chapter the event would not be a success. Many willing workers will be needed.

Arrangements for the storing of the clothes collected are being made by Mr. Briggs.

Any clothes collected which cannot be used by the schools will be turned over to some welfare organization of the city.

Josephine Ortaldo Is Chosen Delegate

Senior Girl Will Compete With Members of Other Schools in Citizenship Contest

Josephine Ortaldo was selected as the senior girl to represent the high school in the Daughters of the American Revolution good citizenship pilgrimage.

Her name will be sent to the district headquarters to compete with representatives of other schools.

The person winning at this contest will be sent to Topeka, where one will be selected to represent Kansas. In the spring the winner representing the state of Kansas will be sent to Washington where the D. A. R. continental congress meets. This girl's expenses to Washington will be paid, but she must furnish her own wardrobe.

The girls from all forty-eight states will be chaperoned and entertained. Josephine was selected from a group of fifteen girls.

WE APOLOGIZE

The students of Pittsburg high school offer their apology to Columbus, to Reterree Floyd Smith of Iola junior college, for the conduct of many of the spectators at their recent basketball game.

The official position of the referee of a basketball game is to preside over the game; he is not influenced by any "booming" on the part of the onlookers. Therefore, the student body is asking that there be no repetition of that conduct.

It makes no difference who look part in this; the students have shown by vote that there will be no more of it on their part.

Any person who insists on "booming" will be invited to leave, and not return.

Out of all those present in school, when vote was taken, 100 percent were in favor of the following proposal:

We, the student body of Pittsburg senior high school, wish to go on record as disapproving all booing, unsportsmanlike remarks or actions toward referee or opponents in all inter-school contests.

Two Receive Awards

Snodgrass and White Homes Win
Prizes in Contest

The homes of Mr. F. M. Snodgrass, physical education instructor, and Mr. John E. White, printing instructor, were awarded awards in the city home decorations contest held recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Snodgrass won second prize, a cash award of three dollars. Mr. and Mrs. White received honorable mention. Both homes are in the second precinct of the first ward.

The Snodgrass display at 315 East Quincy was a scene depicting Santa Claus going down the chimney into the living room where the children's stockings were hanging near the open fireplace.

The White home at 314 East Quincy had an abundant display of Christmas trees and multi-colored lights arranged as to provide a colorful and "Christmasy" appearance.

FOURTEEN HIGH SCHOOL BOYS JOIN DE MOLAYS

Fourteen boys who now attend P. H. S. were initiated into the Pittsburg chapter of the Order of De Molay at the meeting at the Masonic temple Friday, Jan. 1. This meeting was the sixteenth annual anniversary of the Pittsburg chapter.

The Pittsburg high boys admitted to the order were Francis Dyer, Ralph Seifers, Bill Walker, Robert Innis, Charles Packard, Charles Ray, Joe Stephens, Norman Ryan, Merle Dean Hadlock, Jack Gray, Lewis Breckon, Joe Stephenson, Jim Hand, and Harold Walker.

Mr. Ted Carnino, woodwork instructor of P. H. S., was made a member of the 1937 advisory board.

Hold Last Rites For Crash Victims

Beryl Knost '31, Robert Kelly '32
Are Fatally Injured Jan. 1
In Collision

Funeral services were held Sunday and Monday for Miss Beryl Knost '31 and Robert (Bob) Kelly '32, both 23 years old, who were fatally injured last Friday morning when the Buick coupe in which they were riding, smashed into a Frisco motor coach at a crossing at South Broadway and Carlton.

Miss Knost died just as the ambulance reached the hospital. Kelly lived several hours.

Services were held for Miss Knost at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the E. K. Smith chapel with Rev. C. J. Askins in charge. Interment was made in the Highland Park cemetery.

Services were held for Kelly at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon in the First Presbyterian church with Rev. A. B. Miller in charge.

Miss Knost attended Pittsburg high school from 1928 to 1931. She was active in Girl Reserves and was on the cabinet during her sophomore year. She was graduated from the College in 1935. At the time of her death she was employed as instructor for home economics in Yuma, Colo., and was home for the holidays.

Mr. Kelly, who lived in Pittsburg all his life, graduated from the high school in 1932. He was active in Hi-Y, the Pep Props, glee club and was in "The Lucky Jade."

He later attended the University of Kansas.

Booster Enters Contest

Sponsored by Columbia Scholastic
Press Association

Copies of all Boosters published this year will be sent to Columbia University soon to compete in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association thirteenth annual newspaper-magazine contest. The contest is being sponsored by the association which is composed of faculty members of Columbia University and founded in the interests of student publications.

This contest is the first one entered this year in which the entire issue of the paper is judged. No separate stories will be considered except as contributing to the paper as a whole. The prizes consist of medals awarded appropriately according to the merit of the paper.

SPEECH PLAYS PICKED; CAST TO BE CHOSEN SOON

Four 1-act plays have been picked for presentation by the speech department. These dramatic productions are given annually to help finance the debate trips. The plays are as follows: "The Lady Who Ate An Oyster," "Amateur Hamlet," "Chickens Come Home," and "Sendeth Rain."

The first three are comedies and the latter a tragedy. They are under the direction of Mr. William Row, speech instructor.

"NO MORE CHEWING GUM," SAY HOME ROOM TEACHERS

The teachers are being asked to remind their first hour classes to throw away all of the chewing gum which the students have with them.

Students have said it is healthful to chew gum. It is healthful to do many things but all of them can not be done in school. This campaign began this week.

ROW PRESENTED WITH DEBATE TROPHY

The winning of third place at the Topeka debate tournament gave the debaters occasion for celebration. Proud of their success, Howard Marchbanks assumed the duty of "master of ceremonies" and opened a meeting. Announcing the results and remarking in a good-natured way that the three losses were due to inefficient judges, he called the P. H. S. debate squad pretty good.

On the way home from Topeka, they had talked about a cup to present to Mr. Row, the coach. Bob Pratt, standing near the speaker's platform, handed the trophy to Howard. The "master of ceremonies" then took pleasure in presenting Mr. Row with a bright newly engraved, aluminum drinking cup.

Commerce Field Shows Progress Here Since 1912

(Wanda Faulkner)

The commercial department of our school was established twenty-four years ago, under the direction of Mr. E. F. Sholtz.

The high school was, at that time, located in the Roosevelt junior high building and had, in addition to the regular sophomore, junior and senior classes, the eighth and ninth grades. The subjects deemed most important in this first commercial course were typing and shorthand. A large room on the north side of the building was arranged to fit the needs of the department. There was placed in the center of the room a glass partition which separated the shorthand students from the typists, both of which Mr. Sholtz taught all day long. His system was to start students on their lessons and then go to the opposite end of the room and teach shorthand. This system was carried out until the new high school building was built in 1921.

The department was then made into a four-year course and the subject "banking procedure" was added. It occupied the entire south side of the first floor.

As the school continued to grow, more subjects were added to its curriculum and it was necessary to reduce the space allowed to the commercial division. The rooms were remodeled and since that time have not been altered.

We now have five instructors teaching commercial subjects. They are Mr. Lester Ramsey, Mr. C. H. Lundquist, Miss Ferda Hatton, Mrs. Dora Peterson and Miss Jessie Bailey.

The course is designed specifically for students desiring to enter the field of business or for those not planning to enter some college and in need of an education which will fit them for everyday life.

Mr. Sholtz, before designing our first commercial course, was principal of Lincoln grade school. He later taught at the Business College. After leaving our school, he became the head of K. S. T. C.'s commercial department and filled that position until his death in 1926.

Christ was not born on Dec. 25. A more likely month is April.

Organization For Student Inquiry

Principal Hutchinson Starts Club On Wednesday; Will Be a Question Box

Principal J. L. Hutchinson has formed a club for all students who do not belong to the Wednesday group. This organization might be called the question box or the study group.

Students meet at the activity period on Wednesday either in the auditorium or in the library. Here they may write questions or suggestions on slips of paper which are collected and given to Mr. Hutchinson. He in turn reads and answers them. Any student in this group may add to the discussion of any question or suggestion which is handed in.

Some of the questions thus far have been as follows: Why don't we have shorter periods? Why can't we have school dances? Why can't we have longer vacations?

Hi-Y

David New Chapter.

Devotions were read by Lewis Brecko. No definite program had been planned, so Charles Bishop, president, led the chapter in a discussion on New Years resolutions.

B. V. Edworthy Chapter.

Devotions were read by Bob Stover, vice-president. Alvadore Suffron was chosen for the office of secretary from which Paul Byers resigned. Loren Jones, Bible study chairman, conducted a discussion on New Year's resolutions.

Bunny Carlson Chapter.

Joe Stephens was in charge of devotions and arrangements for the coming Hi-Y and G. R. Bundle Day were made. The remainder of the meeting was devoted to discussion of resolutions.

Jimmie Welch Chapter.

The meeting was in charge of Joe Callahan, Bible study chairman and Bob Meirs had devotions. Their topic of discussion, "Facing Life Squarely," involved other subjects such as group loyalty and home relations.

Joe Dance Chapter.

The meeting was in charge of Thornton Dewey who led the group in discussion Bible names and characters.

Girl Reserves

For their first meeting after the Christmas vacation the Girl Reserves met in their respective groups Wednesday. Discussion was on "How shall we choose our movies?" In some of the groups the girls also gave some New Year's resolutions and told how they spent their vacations.

There is still one good trait about robbers - they're polite. We see where a robber stole $2.00 from a school Hi-Y fund and then wrote "Thank you" on the blackboard.

STRAIGHT LINE? NOT SUCH A THING

Miss Anna Fintel's solid geometry classes started the study of spheres last month. The students learned many things the first day of study.

One thing which they have been trying to learn for three years is that the shortest distance between two points is a straight line. Now they learn that there is no such thing as a straight line. The poor students are wondering which statement is right.

Keep Building Orderly, Clean, Quiet; Will Have Stop Signs

Do you try to keep the school quiet, clean and orderly? If you do, you will do the following things: leave the chairs in the right places in the cafeteria, keep your voice in a conversational tone, leave your gum at home, place all waste paper in the waste paper basket. Both halls and classrooms have improved recently in cleanliness but have not improved in quietness. See if in the next week the student body can correct this and make this high school outstanding in quietness and cleanliness.

Following is a list of articles which have been returned: gloves, belts, pencils, fountain pens, literature books, hats and bracelet. If you have lost any of these articles, you might go to room 105 and see if your article have been returned.

We are asking that if you bring gum in the building that you throw it in a waste paper basket before the first hour begins.

There is a need for more students to be at the doors during class periods. If you have a study period and could be at a door during that period please see Mr. Lester Ramsey.

It has been found that there is a need for some stop signs to be placed on Broadway in front of the school. We are asking that some be placed there for the student body's protection.

Letters have been written to many schools in the district asking to exchange handbooks. We think that we shall have handbooks from several different schools.

—Student Council.

SANITATION COMMITTEE

We are all back at school after our vacation and ready to start a new year. We suppose you have all made your New Year's resolutions. Don't you think it would be a good idea to include several concerning your school? For example, resolve to help, insofar as you are able, to keep our campus free from trash and litter. Our halls could also come under the of school cleanliness. Let's also see if our conduct in the halls and classrooms could be improved. If we resolve to be careful while driving to school and back, I'm sure many accidents could be avoided. If we try to do our best during the rest of the school year, we can make our school a much better place in which to live.

DAME FASHION

The sole purpose of clothes or make-up should be, not to create beauty but to enhance the natural beauty. Any girl can be lovely if she tries. Adjust your costume to your mood. A sad and dreamy mood is shown by wearing drab colors as jungle gray, black or any of the smoky tones. A light and airy feeling can be noted in powder blue, pink, rose, and shallow green.

Purple gives one an inspired look. White makes one sweet and helpless. Your clothes show your personality. A careless person can be noticed very easily by the way she is dressed.

Your very education is shown in the appropriateness of your clothes. Be careful—clothes make the girl.

The abbreviation "A. D." does not mean "after date" or "after death," as believed by some. The letters are the initials of the Latin words, "Anno Domini," meaning "in the year of our Lord."

FORMER P. H. S. BOY TEACHES DRUM

George Inman, who formerly attended P. H. S., has been giving lessons on the drum to various students from the high school which he is attending at Booneville, Indiana. When he attended our high school, he was a drummer in the band and has a good deal of experience with this particular form of music.

Among his students, there is a girl who is totally deaf, but her ambition and perseverance are remarkable. According to Inman, she has a perfect sense of rhythm and is one of his best pupils. This girl attends the public high school, just as an ordinary pupil. She has no trouble at all in understanding a person because she can read one's lips perfectly when she is addressed.

Longest Vacation Of School Year Comes to Close

(Ruth Delaine Collins)

Wednesday, December 23, 1936! We're, at last, free from the bonds of study. Vacation holds this in store.

Thursday afternoon we all do our last minute shopping. The crowded streets are filled with late shoppers making their way through the mob. The stores are packed by those who are looking for gifts to please their relatives. Maybe it's for Grandma Brown, Cousin Emma, or Aunt Matilda. What do you suppose each would like? Aunt Matilda hates the color of red so—perhaps she would be more pleased with a green scarf.

In front of the stores are bright green Christmas trees. The town is decorated from one end to the other with red and green lights strung down the middle of the street and at each corner.

Christmas Eve—a nice cheery evening at home with the family, popping popcorn, pulling taffy and roasting chestnuts on the coals in the fireplace. Or—perhaps you are taking in a midnight show and now—to bed with ye.

Santa comes crawling stealthily down the chimney, looks around and laughs in a jolly good-hearted way. Dawn breaks and there is a scramble to the Christmas tree. Whether it's a watch or a doll, it pleases. Then we all eat Christmas dinner with a word of praise for whose birthday we give thanks. There are turkey dressing, cranberries, plum pudding and all sorts of delicious things to eat.

Ring out the old Ring in the new! 1937 with all its new year's resolutions and alas! it is Jan. 4. The school doors are open again.

Here's to a Happy New Year!

New Cupboard

There is a new cupboard in the science laboratory. It is a large one nearly reaching the ceiling and will be used mostly for storage. The three top shelves are adjustable so they can be used for things of any height. Another part is large enough for the scales to be used inside of it. The bottom part can be used for storage. The cupboard has been finished for about two weeks.

SIR WALTER, SMART BOY, FOOLS HISTORIANS

Historians have been digging up the life of Sir Walter Scott. Some say he wasn't a very bright boy at school. But he fooled them! He proved the contrary to be true at least in one instance.

One day the teacher or "school master" asked a student, "What part of speech is 'with'?"

The boy answered, "A noun, sir." At that the teacher cried in a loud, booming voice, "You young blockhead! What example can you give of such a thing?"

Just then Scott spoke up with "I can tell you, sir. You know there is a verse in the Bible which says that Samson was bound with withs." (See Judges 16:17)

Titans Trounce Pittsburgers In Surprise Battle

Half Time Score, 14-13

Dragon Cubs Trim Hez's Reserves
In Tight Fray As Hunt
Sinks Winner

The Columbus Titans won over the Pittsburg High Dragons, 27-24, here last Tuesday night in a slam bang battle that had the crowd on their feet from the start to finish. Kierl the king pin for the Orange and Red attack, won high honors with six field goals.

Drawing first blood with Kierl's long shot the Titans tightened their defense and played the scrappiest game seen on the Lakeside hard wood this year.

The locals led only once during the entire game. Starting the second stanza with a swisher, Worthington put the purple warriors ahead for their only lead of the game.

The game was only two minutes old when "Arkie" started his steady stream of subs. A hot nip and tuck fray ended the first quarter as Lance's basket tied the score 7-all.

The lead the Dragons built up in the second was overcome by Kierl's two straight and Duvall's set-up and the score at the half was Columbus 14, Pittsburg 13.

The third round saw another ding-dong battle for the ball with the Pittsburgers tying the count but being unable to forge ahead.

Kierl finished the night in perfect form in the last period to win a joust the visitors were doped to lose.

The younger Dragons won the initial tilt of the evening with a thrilling finish. After being behind all of the game the ball-hawks from Cherokee came to life in the last ten minutes of the fray to knot the count. It was the long shot by the red-headed Verle Hunt that decided the battle as the bell rang.

The box score:

Nutty Brown Bread

Nutty Brown Bread has a nutritive value of more than five times that of wheat flour, three times that of lean round of beef and three to thirty times that of many of the best known and most frequently used articles of food. Yet this bread is non-fattening because it contains practically no starch. It can therefore be safely used in the treatment for diabetics.

Win Over Grads

Morgan Is High Point Man In
28-23 Victory

After drawing first blood on Stephenson's free toss, the Dragons won from the alumni, 28-23, here Wednesday night, Dec. 30. As Scalet fouled and "Stevie" sank the free one, the grads began to click with Owsley under the basket to make it 2-1. From here it was a nip-and-tuck battle and the alumni held a 1-point advantage over their alma mater at the half, 15-16.

Led by their senior forward, Jack Morgan, the purple clad rallied in the last half to win. Coasting through on fouls, the Pittsburgers made twelve out of 22 free throws.

The most tragic thing that yours truly witnessed last Tuesday night was not Pittsburg high's defeat but the unsportsmanlike conduct of the fans. The referees of all high school games have both coaches' OK stamped upon them before they walk out on the floor. Floyd Smith of Iowa was the man on the floor Tuesday night and the boos, slurs and hisses that gentleman received would have made other officials chalk up a foul on the Pittsburg team. Mr. Smith is to be commended for not doing so.

A hand to the Dragons for apologizing to the referee after the game for the actions of their highly esteemed admirers.

Are the amateur sports of this high school to be ruined and degraded just because of the utter lack of sportsmanship of a few conceited, self-styled "experts" who know very little of anything other than muckerism?

This Kierl that the Dragons saw too much of in the Titan game played heads-up ball. He made three baskets in each half and was high point man of the game with twelve points.

The intramural teams of the school have been at that well-known thing again—hard work. With the schedule starting next week, the different groups have been polishing up this week to be able to take their first game next Monday. There will be a column in next week's issue to be continued thereafter on all of these games.

The game tonight will have more than one feature. One will be a new score board. The printing department, art department and industrial arts department have been working on it this week. If possible it will be used tonight. It will have the players' names and numbers on it. The score board should be a great help to ardent basketball fans who don't know all the players.

ALL AMERICAN GIRL

A duet was heard before the first hour gym class by Betty Crain and Miss Lanyon. The title was, "And So Do I." We heard it sounded like "Just Before the Battle." Miss Lanyon has long aspired to be an opera singer—think she'll make it?

Doris Claunch was still steaming at noon—Reason—she got so hot up playing basketball first hour.

Claire Lucille Hubert arrived in third hour gym class terribly mortified and as usual a man was the cause of it all.

Betty Brackett kept her dark secret until too late. People just couldn't sing "Happy Birthday" a whole day later.

Everyone beware! Betty Jean Lashbrook is going in for dissecting! During the holidays she "et" a pig and brought its bones to school—some what like the old tale of "Tee To Ti Tum".

"That air" black eye of Betty Lu Williams has a rainbow beat when it comes to colors—no red in it but we'll bet she saw plenty of red.

Miss Lanyon to dumb-bell drill class—"Dumb-bells—quit please!" class wondered to which and to whom she was referring.

Junior Team Wins

The junior team of the Dragons traveled to Girard Wednesday night to meet the Girard first team. Pittsburg was victorious by a 32-17 score. Ryan of Pittsburg was high point man making fifteen points during the game.

Lanyon to Sponsor Tournaments
Held Among Rooms

The basketball season for girls opened this week under the supervision of Miss Helen Lanyon. The girls' gym classes will hold interclass tournaments in which all classes will take part.

Miss Lanyon has announced that tournaments among the different home rooms will also be sponsored. Girls who wish to take part in the latter have been asked to sign a paper indicating their desire to participate. The papers will be issued through the home rooms.

In Birmingham, Ala., the East Lake Lions Club has induced the city commission to pass a law providing for a heavy fine for people who do not pay the utmost respect to blind on the street.

BULLETIN

The first of a series of all-school roller skating parties sponsored by the Pop Club will be held tonight immediately following the Pittsburg-Coffeyville basketball game. Skaters will cavort in the old business college building at Broadway and Kansas.

Tickets, which will sell for twenty cents, may be purchased today from any club officer, Mr. F. M. Snodgrass and Miss Helen D. Lanyon, or at the rink tonight.

Former Stars at KSTC

Both P. H. S. Graduates Played
Basketball Here

Two former Dragon basketballers, Clint Rankin '32 and Max Maletz '34, are leading what appears to be one of the best basketball teams K. S. T. C. has had in years.

Maletz was an all-S. E. K. forward and Rankin made honorable mention when they played for the Dragons.

This is the second year these two boys have played on the College's first five; and both were placed on the Central Conference all star team last season.

Dragons Are Host To Lewis' Crew

Hoffman Crew to Tangle With The Coffeyville Tribe in
First League Tilt

Playing their first league game of the year, the Pittsburg Dragons will tangle with the Golden Tornadoes from Coffeyville here tonight at 7:30.

When the Dragons and Lewis' Tornadoes meet on the hard wood in Lakeside gymnasium, the Pittsburgers will be seeking revenge for the beating the Coffeyville crew handed them last Oct. 16 in football.

The golden clads are touted as one of the strongest contenders in the SEK race and if the Purple can get by them they will be considered a good candidate for the top niche in the 1937 hall of fame.

Having won four games out of five starts, losing only to Chanute, Hoffman's five lettermen are expected to put up a hard battle. Stung by the loss to Columbus, the Dragons will be out for the Tornado scalp for the beating they were handed last year. It was the first time in the high school's basketball history that Coffeyville had defeated them.

There will be a reserve game between the two schools at 6:30.

Play at Besse

A string quartet composed of Athol Barnes, Merle Hadlock, Vern Guss and Jack Karns gave a musical program Wednesday night in the Arabian room of the Hotel Besse. The program was presented as a part of the chapters dinner of the P. E. O.

James Kelly Is Triumphant In Golden Gloves

Millard McMurry Victor in First Fight But KO'd in Second

Three Enter From PHS

Sammy Miller, Negro Sophomore,
Loses Out in First Bout
With Lafferty

As the sounds of gloves against skin, bodies meeting the canvas and alternating rounds of applause and jeers die away, while the trophies and medals are being awarded, out of the smoke and war clouds walk eight champions.

All of this happened last Wednesday night at the Mirza temple at the windup of the 3-day Golden Gloves tourney sponsored by the Headlight and Sun.

Headlight & Sun Picture
James (Jimmy) Kelly

Out of those eight leather pushing champions one wore P. H. S. colors. Jim Kelly, senior, battled his way through one fight Monday night and two Wednesday night to win the fly-weight title for this district. Millard McMurry, freshman, was stopped in the finals by Mat Young, Sam Miller, sophomore, was stopped Tuesday night.

Kelly received a trophy for his services, McMurry was given a medal while Sam was stopped in his first bout.

Kelly, a 112-pound lad, was pitted in his first fight against Jackie Miller, Pittsburg Negro, who weighed in at 113. After a bout that saw the colored boy clinch very much, Jim won by a decision.

One night of rest and he faced Bob Walters, Pittsburg, putting him away with a quick KO in the first round. With about an hour's rest, Jim went into the finals against Sherman Depew of Weir. After a slam bang battle that saw the Weir boy on the mat many times, twice for the count of nine, Kelly KO'd him in the third.

McMurry, who won second in the bantam-weight got the decision over Raymond Rowden, 121-pound Columbus man, in his first fight Tuesday night. Coming in for a strong finish over the less popular visitor, the Pittsburg handed out a hard mauling.

Millard was KO'd in the finals Wednesday night by Mat Young, Frontenac bruiser. Although he led the fight all the first round, McMurry stopped a hard one in the second that was too much for him.

Sammy Miller, Negro sophomore, lost by a decision Tuesday night to Louis Lafferty, Neodesha welter. Showing a strong fight, Sam was unable to take the rocking lefts and was groggy as the last bell rang.
